a) War Memorial
The Clerk had looked in to the process of applying for a HLF grant for refurbishment of the Cenotaph. Members had a site visit and the scope of the works were established. The Clerk took photographs to support the application and would not begin the process.

b) War Memorial Bench

This bench is in need for refurbishment; it needs all the slats to be replaced. Cllr Morgan will obtain a price for replacement hard wood slats which the Council will fund. Cllr Morgan offered to carry out the work free of charge as his contribution to the project.

c) Upper Rhumney Sign

Cllr Morgan asked for a progress update on the installation of this sign. Cty Cllr Evans had been informed that this sign had been placed. Cllr Morgan will check on this and report back to the Clerk.

d) Pound Lane – No HGV Sign

Cllr Price had been asked to chase up this matter on behalf of Cllr G Price. Cty Cllr Evans felt it is a matter for the residents to erect an appropriate sign to prevent further damage.

e) Phone Box Library

Cllr R Lewis asked if anyone had any red paint for the Phone Box Library.

Resolved: Cllr Lewis to purchase paint and present the invoice to the Community Council for payment.

f) Llwyn Lane – Drain

Cllr C Lewis identified issues with a drain along Llwyn Lane. Cty Cllr Evans will contact LE regarding this matter.

g) Potholes – Llwynbarried Lane to Cefnlllyn

Cllr J Price identified issues along the lane.. Cty Cllr Evans will contact LE regarding this matter.
